Memorials and Other Options

Old Park Meadow is above all a place of remembrance, and we fully understand that you may wish to mark the grave with a reminder of your loved one. To preserve the natural beauty of our site, on the burial and ash plots we only allow wooden grave markers to be placed. However, we have a number of different options for memorials that are each presented in their own unique and individual way. From slate plaques in a beautiful oak frame, or an engraved leaf on our Copper Tree, an entry in our Book of Remembrance to living memorial trees.

Wooden Grave Marker

In order to easily find a burial or ash interment plot, you may want to have a small, 5.5" x 5.5" square wooden marker placed on the grave. These markers can't be seen from a distance but provide a subtle, unobtrusive way of marking out a loved one's small spot of nature.

Engraved Slate Memorial Plaques

We offer engraved slate memorial plaques which provide a beautiful and respectful reminder for family and friends without harming the environment or burial site. These come in the form of beautifully engraved grey slate tablets, which are entirely maintenance free, so will never fall into disrepair. The plaques are either 30cm long, 6.5cm tall and 2cm thick and once engraved can be placed in our memorial frame or 18cm long, 11cm tall and 2cm thick attached to one of our oak posts.

Memorial Plaques for Benches

Throughout Old Park Meadow, there are several areas that have been carefully selected for the placing of simple teak benches. Visitors can sit, rest and reflect, making these benches an ideal location to place a memorial plaque, alongside plaques from other families who have laid their loved ones to rest. Each plaque will consist of a name and dates, and you can place it on the bench of your choice.

Engraved Copper Memorial Tree

For something truly unique, we offer the opportunity to have a leaf on our stunning copper sculpture engraved. We have had the sculpture purpose built to fit elegantly alongside its living counterparts. You can have a leaf engraved with a name and dates, if you wish you can order an additional take home leaf for the cost of £145.

Book of Remembrance

An entry in our Book of Remembrance provides families and friends with a lasting memorial of their loved one. Your entry can be either two, five or eight lines and illustrated with a motif if desired. Each entry is created by hand and offers an opportunity to pay a final tribute to loved ones. The date of inscription into the Book of Remembrance is a personal choice; it can be the day of the final goodbye or perhaps another date that holds a particular significance to your family, such as an anniversary or birthday. The Book of Remembrance entries are sent away at different times of the year to be inscribed. Please see prices below or contact us for further information.
