

Advance Funeral Wishes

Produced by The Natural Death Centre Charity ©

Funeral wishes, whether in a Will or in a letter or form as below, are not legally binding on friends and relatives, but will normally be followed where at all possible. At the very least, what follows may stimulate you to think of the kind of funeral you might or might not like; and to make sure that those who may be responsible in the event know your wishes.

See also The Natural Death Centre's Death Plan for requirements whilst dying, and the Charity's Advance Healthcare Directive. (Separate sheets can be used for longer responses, using the numbers below to refer to. Underline or tick or cross out or amplify as relevant.)

1. I have / have not written a Will (location.....) which expresses / does not express my funeral wishes. (If there is such a Will) - please treat this additional document as expanding on the wishes expressed in that Will, with the Will taking legal precedence if relevant.
